Short presentation

I am a Sociologist of Religion specializing in pre-Christian Northern European religions - especially Celtic and Norse religious traditions. I also have a strong interest in Hellenistic religions in the Roman Empire, and I also work on religions in present day Denmark. A common theme for my varied interests is religious change, and my current project concerns the christianization of the Roman Empire in the 4th century.

Dissemination of research, teaching and education are important to me - besides my university teaching I have worked with adult education at the People's University since 1983 and at Open University since 1997. I give public lectures and now and then I am in the media clarifying relevant issues.
